Counseling Department News

October is College Application Month!

We encourage all of you to cheer on a senior as they work toward applying to their future path. We have several activities ongoing during the month of October and would love your support.

1. College Application Kick-Off Bingo. Students will have the opportunity to pick up BINGO cards in the cafeteria on Monday, October 3rd, or throughout the week in the Counseling Office. The goal is for students to get signatures from PHS staff members and have conversations about College. Students will be entered to win college swag and yearbooks!
2. College/University Visits. There will be 25 different schools available to meet with this week in Lab A. Students signed up by visiting the link on their Schoology page. They will receive an email confirmation that they can use it as a pass. We will also be taking attendance.
3. NCMC College Fair. NCMC will hold its annual College Fair on Wednesday, October 5th from 6:00-7:30. This is a drop-in event and great for all ages to participate!
4. Free College Applications. MCAN has created a list of FREE application information for students and staff to reference. If a student is applying to one of these schools, encourage them to complete it so they save some money!
5. PHS English Department Door Decorating. Thank you to the English Department who will be participating in Door Decorating to celebrate College Application Month. Also, shout out and thanks to the Senior English Teachers who will be giving up curriculum time for the counselors to join seniors in classrooms to work on applications and future planning.
6. Locker Decorating. Through the month of October, seniors will be placing "I applied" signs on their lockers. Please join us in congratulating seniors on their hard work this month!

Virtual Financial Aid Nights
